Welcome to the March

2023

Riverside
SAGINAW
FILM FESTIVAL

The festival was established as a grassroots effort to bring interesting, entertaining and thought-provoking independent, foreign and documentary films to Saginaw.

As an all-volunteer organization, we are always on the lookout for people who would like to help. If you would like to volunteer on the festival board or help at future events, see a festival volunteer in the lobby or contact us by phone, email, or facebook messenger.

Aftersun

2023- Drama - UK, USA
R - 1h 42m

Eleven-year-old Sophie treasures spending time with her loving father, Calum, played by 2023 Oscar nominee Paul Mescal. As she dwells on these moments twenty years later, Sophie attempts to reconcile the father she loved with the man she didn't know.

Directed by debut filmmaker and winner of the 2022 Cannes Film Festival Touch Prize of the Critics' Week Jury, Charlotte Wells.

All the Beauty and the Bloodshed

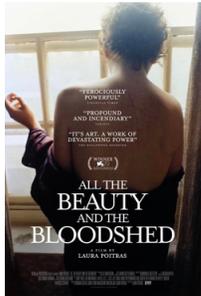

2023 - Documentary - USA-
NR - 2h 2m

In this Oscar-nominated documentary, director Laura Poitras follows the life of artist Nan Goldin and her involvement in the downfall of the Sackler family, the pharmaceutical dynasty that was greatly responsible for the opioid epidemic's unfathomable death toll.

Decision to Leave

2022 - Drama/Romance - S.
Korea - NR- 2h 19m

In this thrilling South Korean crime drama, a detective investigating a man's death in the mountains meets the dead man's beautiful and mysterious wife. Directed by Korean filmmaker and winner of 2022 Cannes Film Festival Best Director Award. Subtitles

The Quiet Girl

2022 - Drama - Ireland
PG-13- 1h 34m

Set in rural Ireland of the 1980s, this drama follows a quiet, neglected girl as she is sent from a dysfunctional home to live with foster parents for the summer. As she blossoms under their care, she discovers that in a house meant to be without secrets, she has found one. Nominated for a 2023 Academy Award in Best International Feature Film. Subtitles

To Leslie

2022 - Drama - USA
R - 1h 59m

Inspired by true events, director Michael Morris' drama set in West Texas tells the story of a single mother who wins the lottery, only to squander her winnings and leave a legacy of heartbreak in her wake. Years later, with her options limited and charm running out, she fights to rebuild her life and find redemption. Starring 2023 Best Actress nominee Andrea Riseborough, Allison Janney and Stephen Root.

Tár

2022- Drama - USA
R - 2h 38m

Set in the international world of Western classical music, the film centers on Lydia Tár, played by 2-time Oscar winner Cate Blanchett. Nominated for 6 Oscars, this musical drama written and directed by Todd Field, portrays the triumphs and troubles of a woman considered one of the greatest living composer-conductors, and the first female director of a major German orchestra.

Women Talking

2022 - Drama- USA
PG-13- 1h 44m

Women of an isolated religious community come together to figure out how they might move forward to build a better world for themselves and their children. Stay and fight or leave. They will not do nothing.
